CONFEDERATION HORTICULTURE ASSOCIATION OF INDIA

Delhi ,India

FULL STACK DEVELOPER

The Confederation of Horticulture Associations of India (CHAI), an ISO-9001:2015 certified non-profit organization established in 2011, is dedicated to advancing horticulture and agriculture through research, education, and development. The CHAI encourages organizations and individuals to collaborate in pursuit of this mission. With the specific aim of strengthening, coordinating, and facilitating grass-root policies for integrated development both nationally and internationally, the CHAI is steadily emerging as a think-tank and consultative body. CHAI has initiated series of Knowledge Sharing dialogue at several locations to address topical issues involving institutions, industries, farmers, and other stakeholders. These initiatives, designed to foster knowledge sharing and inform policy formulation, serve as a guiding principle for realising the goals and objectives of climate resilient precision horticulture. Through series of workshops, conferences, symposiums, and discussions at different locations, CHAI successfully empowers farmers with updated knowledge and provided a policy framework.

CHAI continues to partner and support the conferences organised by ASM Foundation, New Delhi and other institutions within the framework of its aims and objectives.

The Chairman, Dr. H.P. Singh, delivered keynote lectures related to micro-irrigation, horticulture, and innovation at various conferences and engages in discussions. He also served as a chief guest and guest of honour at numerous events. CHAI's role in transforming Horticulture/Agriculture has garnered considerable attention, with our fellowship tally now standing at about 450, including institutional and corporate fellows. Increasing interest in joining CHAI from corporations, institutions, societies, and individuals has bolstered our confidence to serve the community and achieve the confederation's mandate.

The Confederation has instituted several awards to recognize the contribution of individuals. These include: (WE NEED TO GIVE NAMES). In addition CHAI Fellowship is granted to individuals and institutions in different categories, recognizing their commitment to the furtherance of Horticulture.

I am confident that CHAI will emerge as an organization that instills pride in all its fellows and furthers the cause of agriculture and horticulture. I extend my heartfelt congratulations to all the recipients of CHAI awards and express my deep gratitude to all our fellows for their active cooperation. I also thank everyone who helped in compiling this CHAI Annual Report and anticipate the continued support of all our fellows. Ultimately, I look forward to making the CHAI a global force, second to none, in serving humanity with a focus on horticulture.

About the Lt. Amit Singh Memorial Foundation (An organization certified for ISO 9001-2015)

Lt. Amit Singh Memorial Foundation (ASM Foundation), since its inception, in 2001, has appreciably grown in its outreach and the spectrum of activities carried out to fulfill its commitments, within the ambit of its stated aims and objectives to develop a patriotic society, through education, secured health, economic development and inculcation of ethics and values among the masses, in general, and youth in particular. To begin with, the foundation started its activities with the distribution of books and school bags amongst the poor and needy children to support their education. The Foundation is organizing health camps to improve the health status of poor and needy; scientific exhibitions and workshops to disseminate the knowledge of newly developed technologies, particularly in the field of agriculture and horticulture, to empower the farmers with up-to-date knowledge, and inspirational discourse by spiritual leaders to inculcate social ethics and values, especially among youth.

In its strive to achieve the aims and objectives, the Foundation organized the first Swadesh Prem Jagriti Sangosthi (SPJS-2009), a national level, mega event in, 2009, to commemorate the birthday of the Martyr Lt. Amit Singh, at his birth place, Mahamada, Pusa, Samastipur, Bihar. This Sangosthi included activities like inauguration of Smriti Bhawan, essay/elocution competition and talent search for students of schools and higher secondary schools from different states, health camps, national conference on horticulture, national exhibition, farmers quiz, distribution of quality seeds and planting materials of the agricultural and horticultural crops, diversity shows, litchi/mango eating competition and spiritual discourse to inculcate ethics and values. This Sangosthi was a big success as it was a well attended event. The overwhelming response and encouraging feedback of participants of the first Sangosthi made it annual feature of the activities of the Foundation. Beside farmers, students and scientists, some prominent political personalities also attended the event. Swadesh Prem Jagriti Sangosthi and conference are an annual function. Since then, 2nd Swadesh Prem Jagriti Sangosthi (SPJS) was organised at Bangalore in 2010. Subsequently, 3rd SPJS in 2011 at Dehradun. The events was a great success. 4th Swadesh Prem Jagriti Sangosthi was organized from 27-31 May, 2012 at OUAT, Bhubaneswar, and 5th SPJS was organized on May 28-31, 2013, at JISL Jalgaon, Maharashtra. 6th SPJS was organized at NAU, Navsari and 7th SPJS was organized at Chitrakoot, Satna, Madhya Pradesh. The 8th SPJS was organized at JISL Jalgaon, Maharashtra and 9th SPJS was organized at JAU, Junagadh, Gujarat. Subsequently 10th SPJS was organized at DRPCA, Pusa, Samastipur, Bihar, 28th to 31st May, 2018 and 11th SPJS was organized at GBPUA&T, Pantnagar, Uttarakhand in May 2019. Due to Covid-19, virtual SPJS-2020 was organized from Dubai and SPJS-13 was organized at PJTSAU, Rajendranagar, Hyderabad, Telangana, from 16-19 September, 2021. During the Pandemic (Covid-19), the Foundation conducted its activities adapting digital technologies matching to requirements of the conditions under New normal. The Foundation organized 12th Swadesh Prem Jagriti Sangosthi in the form of webinar entitled “Post Pandemic (Covi-19) Challenges and Options in Agriculture Including Horticulture” on 28th May, 2020, which was well attended from across the globe by more than 1000 delegates. The conference highlighted the emerging issues, caused due to pandemic and discussed various options. The recommendations were communicated to all the stakeholder for action. The Foundation fed poor people and distributed food to large number of needy people. On 3rd September another webinar was organized on production and utilization of fruits. The ASM Foundation also supported webinar organized by CHAI and other organizations.

In order to inculcate the spirit of healthy and fair competitiveness and catalyze the minds of the people to serve the society better, ASM Foundation has instituted many rewards and awards. The rewards include the cash prizes to the winners of national debates/elocution of National Talent search in Horticulture. Awards instituted by the Foundation to recognize the outstanding contributions made by people in their respective fields for the welfare of the society, at large include, Amit Krishi Rishi Award, Amit Padma Jagriti Award, Amit Prabudh Manishi Award, Amit Swah Award, Amit Udyan Ratna Award, Amit Agrani Award, National Talent Award in Horticulture, Best All Rounder Awards (for school students), and Lt.
